Announcing Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts' 3rd Annual Black Box Competition

In 2007 Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts hosted their first annual Black Box Competition for Grade 12 High School students interested in pursuing a career in the Culinary and/or Baking & Pastry Arts.

The 3rd Annual Black Box Competition will be hosted at Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts on Saturday May 9th, 2009. Participants will work individually to create a dish(es) using our mystery black box ingredient(s). There is no fee to enter this fun and challenging competition. The winner of the competition will receive a full set of customized knives. The referring teacher or career advisor for the winning student will also receive a special gift from Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts.

To enter, complete the ballot attached. All entries must include a recommendation letter from a present or past food instructor or career advisor. Be sure to print clearly and legibly. Completed ballots must be returned to Pacific Institute of Culinary Arts no later than Thursday, April 9th, 2009.
